AICCW Fundraising Membership Events

AICCW Scholarship Program

AICCW prides itself on taking a spherical approach to wealth building in our community. We believe that this circle would be incomplete if we neglected to invest in our generations to come. Ensuring that our young people are able to attain an education means we will perpetuate a continuous flow of people who are equipped and committed to being of service to their Nations. This is why we have made a commitment to offering academic scholarships to American Indian students seeking higher education. Over the last 27 years we have disbursed over $370,000 to students to help in their expenses.

AICCW scholarships are distributed to American Indian students who reside in Wisconsin, both on and off reservation. These students must demonstrate a high aptitude for academic achievement and a financial need. Students that are awarded the AICCW scholarship receive an average of $1000 to $2,500 each academic year to offset student expenses including tuition, books, and living expenses. Each year, over 20 students apply for the AICCW Scholarship.

AICCW also works with the UW-Oshkosh School of Business to award the H. Dersken & Sons/UW-Oshkosh Scholarship in the amount of $1000-2500 to a deserving UW-Oshkosh student majoring in business.

Annual Golf Outing

The AICCW holds its annual Golf Outing each year on 2 tribally owned golf courses at Thornberry Creek Oneida in Green Bay and Pine Hills Golf Course Stockbridge Munsee in Gresham, WI. alternating years. For 2019 it will be held at Thornberry Creek Oneida in Green Bay on May 24th, 2019. The golf tournament serves as our primary fundraiser to support the AICCW Scholarship Program. All funds raised at the event go to the scholarship program. To be a sponsor/volunteer ( which is separate from chamber sponsor/membership) for the event you may contact Beverly Anderson at 414-604-2044 or email at Beverly@aiccw-facc.org. for more information.

Annual Reception Mixer

The American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Wisconsin (AICCW) hosts its annual family reception- mixer in September for AICCW members, friends, and family during Indian Summer Festival held on the Henry Maier Festival Park on Milwaukee's lakefront. This annual event provides a great networking opportunity for our members, potential members and other supporters of AICCW and the opportunity to celebrate our collective successes over the past year.

Annual Award Luncheon/Banquet

The American Indian Chamber of WI (AICCW) holds an annual banquet/Luncheon to award Business of the year award, student scholarships, and other distinguished acknowledgements.
